I was at the Route 91 Festival during Jason Aldean set heard multiple "Firecrackers" sounds. I was standing on stage right and saw the crowd running towards us and I started to run when I was hit and fell down. I took cover under the BBQ pit area in back. Kept hearing more + more shots. I was assisted to get out + went behind the Go Army truck + we heard more shots the shots sounded louder there, like they were getting closer. The medic bandaged My knee + I was carried into the Tropicana. We took cover there for a couple of hours until we could get to the ambulance.

WORK ADDRESS:

The following is the transcription of a tape-recorded interview conducted by DETECTIVE R. RAFFERTY (RR), P# 8919, on 10-03-17.

RR: Operator, this is Detective R. Rafferty, that's R-A-F-F-E-R-T-Y, P# 8919, uh, dictating a victim statement, uh, recorded under Event 171001-3519. I'm currently at Henderson Hospital and I'm interviewing [redacted] all common spelling. Date of birth [redacted] Uh, he's a white male adult. His phone number is [redacted] Also present with me is Lisa Pope and, uh, [redacted] Along with, uh, [redacted] what's your name, ma'am?

CB: [redacted]

RR: All right. Uh, [redacted] can you tell me happened two nights ago?

RB: Um, we were at the concert, the Route 91 Harvest Festival and we ended up, um, we're pretty close to the stage. And at some point, we - we both agreed that, you know, it's just getting too crowded up here. You know a couple of drunks up there and it was like, you know, let's - let's just go back: go to the bathroom, you know, grab something to eat or, you know whatever we wanted to do. So as we walked back and we went to the rest room and, uh, Jason Aldean had come on and it was during the third song of his set that, um, it sounded like firecrackers. And it was - it was strange 'cause it was - there was no smoke and that's kind of what I was looking for. Um, and there was two shots, two, four, I do believe and then right after that, the hail of gunshots. It just, it started. Um, we started - we started to exit, we started running back. And, um, unfortunately, I got disconnected from my wife. Um, we went over by the Budweiser tent, by the Budweiser booth right there. She slipped underneath and I was making my way over and kind of jumping the little cinder block walls, figured that would be a pretty save place. And, uh, that's when I was hit. I immediately went down. Um, that's apparently when I lost my phone. And then I was able to walk myself kind of under my own power for about 50 yards. And that was it. And, um, there was a guy who - who came and put his arm underneath me and he said, "Come on, we are getting out of here. Let's go." It's like, wow, okay, great. Um, so we started, we started - we started moving out and he said, "What's your wives phone number? I'll give her a call." So he was able to get a hold of..able to get a hold of her. And then from there, it just, it was more people running. Um, kind of mass hysteria of the masses, craziness. Um, and then after that we had, they put me down behind the Go Army semitrailers. The 53 footers or 48s or whatever they are over there. And there was two EMTs present that came over, wrapped my leg in gauze and tried to get me out of there. Doing the best they could. And there was a lot of yelling and screaming, you know, let's go, let's go, let's get out of here.

CB: And then the gunshots started.

RB: And then the gunshots started again. And it was just this, you know, between the first hail to the next hail, it was probably 30 seconds. And, uh, it just went and it was, um, it was frightening. You know and we ended up, um, going into the Tropicana, into their - it looked like their banquet rooms, reception area, among all their chairs and storage. And once we got in there, same thing, one guy, I should - I wish I caught his name. He said, um, "We'll go in this room." They were able to get a locked door open and so we went in there. And, um, just sat down and tried to put pressure on my knee. It wasn't really bleeding all that much at the time. And then, you know, he came in again and he was busting out light bulbs, just in case, you know, there was on active shooter...

RR: Mm-hm.

RB: ...that's coming around. So kind of hid behind a - a secondary door, um, that was back there. And, uh, stayed there until you went out. You called 911, finally was able to reach someone, it was hotel security.

CB: Mm-hm.

RB: So she was able to go out, reach hotel security and then, um, you know, they said someone is coming for you, someone is coming for you. We'll get you out of here.

RR: Mm-hm.

RB: And, um, they, a couple big guys came and picked me up and took me away. Um, it was, you know we could just hear the - the shots. It sounded much closer the second time. Um, and then, you know, after that we got upstairs and they were able to place me in a chair with wheels.

RR: Mm-hm.

RB: And kind of dragging me around the Tropicana like that. At one point, they actually carried me up three flights of stairs. So and then, um, after that, you know, we able to finally get, you know, attention. And we were outside, right?

CB: Yeah. We had a hard time finding like where the ambulances were.

RB: The triage.

CB: Where triage was and we just kept getting directed to different exits at the Tropicana so we just kept making our way back and forth through Tropicana and finally some guy came actually from the outside and came up the stairs and he said I just took someone to the ambulances, they're out here, let's go. And they carried him down the stairs and pushed him over down the street to where the ambulances were.

RR: And then where did you - what happened - did you come here first or did you go another?

CB: No.

RB: No. We went to Sp...

CB: Spring?

RB: Spring Valley?

RR: Okay.

RB: Small little old...

RR: Uh-huh. Little guy?

RB: Yeah.

RR: And then over here?

CB: Yeah.

RB: And then they were...

CB: They were just overflowing. So the EMTs said anyone who is stable, you know, we're going to take over here.

RB: So, basically the walking wounded.

RR: All right.

CB: They called him the walking wounded.

RR: Essentially, yeah. Um, okay, so real quick. You said you got hit in the knee. Above be low or actually in the knee is similar?

RB: Um, through the knee.

RR: Through the knee itself?

RB: Yeah.

RR: Okay. Um, and then question about the time line. So you hear the shots start, um, and then it lolls. It sounds like there's a pause, uh, and that's kind of seems like when everybody starts running. Yeah?

CB: Yeah.

RR: We have this realization...

RB: Yeah.

RR: ...that something's happening. How long between the first one and the second one, again between if there's a second and a third? Like is there noticeable gaps in your memory where, okay, yes, there's definitely a minute or 30 seconds that...

CB: Okay, so we were talking about there earlier, time is so weird.

RR: Uh, well yeah.

CB: When you're in that situation like.

RR: I understand, yeah.

CB: But there was definitely, like there was that first few shots and it was a handful. I don't know how many.

RR: Sure.

CB: But it was just a handful. Enough for you do think, was that really gunshots?

RR: Sure.

CB: Or not? And then, you know we are kind of looking around and everyone around us was kind of doing the same thing.

RR: Sure.

CB: And then, um, people started screaming, "It's gunshots, get out," and then, you know, we heard that next round and then that kind of like went on and off. It didn't feel like there was much of a gap in there.

RR: Okay.

CB: And then, till we were out on the street. And then when we ran over to the parking lot where the big semis were...

RR: Mm-hm.

CB: ...and we were sitting back there. It's like it had been quiet for, felt like 30 seconds, a minute, a minute and a half. 'Cause we were starting to breathe a little bit, we're like, okay and then it started. We heard it start again and, um, it sounded like it was really close at that point. So no one was sure like, is it - is it really getting closer to us or is it just that, you know, we're in this open area now, so it sounds different. And, um, someone in the parking lot just started yelling, "Everyone, get out of the parking lot. Get out, get out, you know. Get in - get into the building, get moving." And so that's when those guys picked him up and, um, we started heading towards the Tropicana and we went in there.

RR: Could you tell what area where the rounds were coming from? Like I get that the sound is projecting over a large area, was there any kind of direction in your mind, you know, maybe over in this direction or maybe in several directions, is there any kind of thought in your mind, you know, like where they were coming from?

RB: It was pretty clear that it was coming from the Mandalay.

RR: Straight from Mandalay?

CB: Well, I don't know about that but in that direction, like very much 'cause we turned our attention that way.

RR: Right.

CB: And we started like easing over in that area.

RR: Got it.

CB: We were facing the stage and it was clearly, you know, we were looking over this way.

RR: Got it. Um, and then, I think that answered my question. You went to Spring Valley first and then since you were stable, they brought you here. Okay. Um...

RB: Answered (unintelligible) already.

RR: Was there anyone else that you were with that was also wounded kind of at the same time you were? Was there people you remember or people that went with you at all?

RB: I went down pretty quick.

RR: Uh-huh.

RB: And once I was, once I was down, there was a woman who physically fell on top of me.

RR: Okay.

RB: You know, at this point, I'm feeling trampled.

RR: Sure.

RB: Um, so she was there. I don't think she was hit.

RR: Mm-hm. She just fell maybe?

RB: But you know, she, you know and I kind of screamed, I said, you know, I've - I've been shot.

RR: Right.

RB: You know, get me out, get off me, get off me.

RR: Right, right, right.

RB: Um, and so that was - that was with her.

RR: Okay. Uh, anything else that sticks out in your mind? Any critical details or anything that maybe I forgot to ask or that you'd like to contribute to that?

RB: Uh, just you know, your guy's city is amazing. I mean you guy's response and everything that I guy's did for the humanity and for everyone at the concert. You know I really, truly appreciate it, you know.

RR: Sorry this happened to you here.

RB: Yeah, it was no. It wasn't ever really significant, you know?

RB: I can't say anything else either. It all happened so fast, it's...

RR: How about start to finish from the time this shooting started to it ended maybe, completely ending, do you know? Uh, you know I'm assuming you're in the Tropicana by then.

RB: Yeah, we are in the Tropa...

CB: Yeah, 'cause we were already in the Tropicana and we could still hear it.

RR: Mm-hm.

CB: Outside.

RR: Mm-hm.

CB: I couldn't even guess a timeline.

RR: It's okay.

CB: And it felt like an hour. But I'm sure it was...

RB: It was seconds.

JM: No - just us?

CB: Uh, there was some people that came in for, um, they took pictures.

JM: Mm-hm.

CB: But that was it.

JM: Who?

CB: Um, Metro.

JM: Oh it was the Metro? They had, like, a Metro badge and all that?

CB: Yeah.

JM: Okay.

DK: LVMPD (unintelligible).

JM: Um, is there anything else that you think that we should know for our investigation?

CB: Not that I'm aware of.

JM: Okay. Do you have any questions, Detective Koop? How you doin'?

JM: Good.

DK: Yeah that's everything.

DETAILS I heard something that sounded like fireworks and then they got closer and more of them. When I heard screams and saw people running I got on the ground with my friend and his family. I saw some girl with blood and I knew I needed to run. I told my friend's that we need to go. I started running and turned around and they weren't with me. I heard more gun shots and I kept running. I jumped a gate to a dirt lot and followed a group of people to a building near the run way to the airport and we hid in there till a cop came and evacuated us to the runway building.

During the Jason Aldean concert, approx 4 gun shots went off that appeared to be coming from the stage. I stood to the left/middle stage, when a women in front of me went down and was holding her stomach or chest. Shortly after very many different sounding shots went off. I ran with my friend and many others away from the festival towards the airport until it was safe inside.

The following is the transcription of a tape-recorded interview conducted by INVESTIGATOR L. POPE (LP), P# 4000, on 10-03-17 at 1705 hours.

LP: Uh, this is Investigator Lisa Pope doing an interview at UMC and we are with, uh, also present is Detective Zivulovic. The time is 1705 on October 3rd. Uh, we're interviewing [redacted]

CB: [redacted]

LP: He goes by [redacted]

CB: [redacted]

LP: Oh, [redacted] so sorry [redacted] hank you. Uh, his date of birth is [redacted] nd a good contact number for him is [redacted] which is to - to his wife, [redacted] So, um, if you could just take us to, uh, the night and tell us what happened.

CB: Um, it was about probably 4 songs into Jason Aldean's set sounded like somebody set of firecrackers in the crowd and that's actually, kind of, what I think everybody thought it was. And then it stopped and started again. Right after it started again I was, like, that's gunfire, that's not -- so I looked over and a lady had been hit pretty close to me so I ran over. There's some younger kids on the ground, I tried to cover them up and they're like, it's just somebody with firecrackers, I'm like, no, there's a lady that just got shot right back here and they jumped up and took off and so, so, um, there was a trash can that was kind of nearby so I went to go get behind it. I felt I got hit in the back of the leg and I looked down and there was blood everywhere. When I got hit, I actually fell down and there was a guy that he's, like, everybody just calm down, it's just the fireworks and I'm, like, no, look at my leg. He's like, oh, crap, and he took off so there's the -- one of the buildings there's VIP buildings there, the overlook building thing, and it was, like, the safest place I could get to so I made it over there and made it up to the stairs. A couple guys came to me and were like, you all right, and I'm, like, no, I've been hit and the next thing I know I'm in the back of a pickup truck on the way here, so. But Yeah, it was going on a lot longer than that because I'm sure I was one of the first ones out of there because it seemed pretty quick, but, um.

LP: Were you with your - your wife?

CB: No, they were actually in another part of the venue. Actually, it ended up, they were probably about a hundred yards from me but I didn't know it. She was saying that she could actually see the muzzle flashes at Mandalay Bay. Because I thought it was just the venue at first.

LP: Okay.

CB: And they it just kept on going and going and going.

LP: So when you first heard what you thought was firecrackers, like, can you remember how many shots went off?

CB: I would say at least 30, at least 30.

LP: And then there was a pause?

CB: Yeah. There was about a 30-second pause.

LP: And that's why you-all were just looking around...

CB: Uh-huh.

LP: ...at each other...

CB: Yeah.

LP: ...trying to figure out what was that?

CB: Believe it -- I mean, because Jason Aldean kind of looked over and then started to sing again, and it started up again. And that's when I took off.

LP: And was there anybody else around you that you were with? Were you by yourself at the time?

CB: I was by myself.

LP: Okay. And like you said, there was a couple of girls you just kind of got down on top of and then two guys ended up helping you out?

CB: Yep.

LP: Okay. And then you guys were staying at the Excalibur when it happened and when you heard everything, could you tell the direction? I know you said you thought it was in the venue...

((Crosstalk))

CB: I thought it was in the venue. Even then it sounded like -- because there's a section direct by the VIP section that kind of cuts back and I think there may be an entrance gate back there. And then there's the little offices that look like for the concert promoters and stuff, back by the buses. As a matter of fact, when they started going off, I seen a lady pull to the door of the office and look outside to see what was going on.

LP: And so you said that you went from the actual venue...

CB: Mm-hm.

LP: And you went -- which way -- do you remember, like, which direction, or like, what you ran towards when you ran away?

CB: Um, it would've been, let's see, north, probably northwest, yeah, 'cause that buildings kind of in the middle on the northwest side.

LP: And what part of the venue were you at when - when you heard that? Like, were you on the main strip?

CB: Yeah, it was towards Las Vegas Boulevard on the right-hand side of the stage.

LP: And so two guys just put you in their truck and came right here?

CB: He - he had a bunch of other people.

LP: You and a bunch of other people, just got you out of there?

CB: Yeah.

LP: Okay. So you didn't - you didn't see anybody or like you said you couldn't tell which direction it was coming from or anything like that?

CB: Huh-uh.

LP: So from the initial time...

CB: I mean, it had to have been -- would had to have been southwest that it was coming from because actually when I got hit, I was going northeast.

LP: So the first shots go off, and then there's a pause and then the shots happen again and that's when you got hit, correct?

CB: Um, I can't remember -- I don' think it was that go around, I think it was the next one.

LP: The next one.

CB: Yeah.

LP: You were still trying to get out of there?

CB: The second go around is when I covered up those kids.

LP: Okay. Okay. All right. We're gonna end this interview and it's 1713 hours. Same people present.

I followed up Care at St-Rose Dominican Siena Campus for an MRI on my head due to left temporal pain and tenderness and swelling as well as Frontal lobe tingling and numbness that I got from people hitting me in the head while we were hiding underneath the Sound Stage. Thankfully MRI results came back Normal for No Internal Bleeding or Fracture. Just Sustained External Injures to my Head.

[redacted] (my boyfriend) and I [redacted] were standing to the right of the center walkway stage (closer to Mandalay bay area 1) just about 5 people away watching Jason Aldean perform[redacted] was to my right side and a little bit behind me as we danced and sang along to the music having a great time. I heard what sounded like the confetti poppers we had seen and heard go off during[redacted] performance just prior to[redacted] I looked around to my right but there were no confetti I heard it again pop, and then again pop pop this time my heart sunk as I saw a man in his late 30's to mid-40's fall to the ground people all around him speculated he had passed out drunk but I knew when I looked down and saw his face with his eyes wide open lifeless that he was dead. I immediately grabbed[redacted] and pulled him down to crouch next to me I remember saying babe he was shot those are gun shots! [redacted] didn't believe me and stood back up, I remained crouched knowing in my heart what had happened then it began the sound of massive spraying of bullets as I covered my head and dropped to the ground screaming to[redacted] if he was ok it sounded to me as if there were helicopters directly above us shooting down at us. At that moment I thought this is a terrorist attack they are shooting at us from up above[redacted] and I stayed crouched down and another man whom I never saw but know it was a stranger was shielding me with his body he was laying over me. the first round had stopped[redacted] yelled babe we need to run! I yelled at him to get back down he panicked but he did and thank god because almost immediately the second round of spraying bullets began we stayed down and I just prayed to god [redacted] and I wouldn't get hit at that moment the women directly behind us was hit in the back by a bullet all I could see was curly blondish brown hair and the group of people who were behind us screaming she needed a medic for someone to please help her. There was a pause a long pause and[redacted] said Babe we need to run now !!! this time I listened he jumped over people and made his way towards the center median I couldn't I couldn't just walk on people so I started grabbing all the women in front of me blocking my way to the fence and pulling them to their feet run I yelled my boyfriend and I helped 4 or 5 women over the fence then he helped me over and followed behind me. we immediately crouched down behind the fence as I looked for the next closest place to hide. I can't remember if there were shots being fired at this time but it was the sound stage 10 feet in front of us I saw and people hiding under the stage and enough room for us so I pointed towards it and we hauled ass as fast as we could towards it .as we approached the sound stage there was a darker man wearing a yellow shirt I believe a security guard laying on the floor he was gone I looked down at him and my heart broke there was nothing I could do for him he was already gone and as awful as I feel for doing this at the time we had no choice we jumped over his body and ran for cover. Just as we were getting under it I remember the spraying began again I managed to crawl under the stage that was only about a few feet high but my boyfriend did not he refused to climb under and just laid in front of it only half shielded by the stage I was begging him to come under with me but he refused he said he was ok he was safe where he was. people started trampling him trying to climb under the stage where I was and I got separated and pushed deeper under the stage I could hear the bullets hitting the metal above me and people running above me I thought to myself it's going to collapse and I'm going to die. I had taken that moment to text my sister in law[redacted] who had been staying with my kids at our home exactly 10:17 p.m. I wrote "Omg there's tons of gunshots and people dead everywhere "and a second text immediately after still at 10:17p.m. saying Pray for us I love you all" I then yelled for [redacted] and he didn't respond I started begging the people who were in front of me to look for him describing him as a man who was wearing a bright blue and orange shirt no one could see him I my heart sank and I started to panic. finally, I heard his voice say to me[redacted] I'm here I'm right here! I had never been so relieved in all of my life I he had moved further forward around the stage and was to the left of me now he said he couldn't see me only my eyes but I could see him and he was begging me to come out from under the stage he thought the shooter was in the concert, that he was going to find us all under there and kill us but every ounce of my being knew the shooting was coming from above and that we would be safe under there but not safe from it collapsing so I started asking the people in front of me to please switch places with me so I could reach him no one would move I remember a couple a man and a woman the blonde woman crying my baby I asked her if she was pregnant she didn't answer me she just sobbed and a heavy set man with tattoos behind me and a few young blond women in between [redacted] and I when the shooting stopped again [redacted] began pulling out the young women telling them to run he was now able to grab me and pull me out when I got to my feet I immediately looked for the next safest place to run it was the red Budweiser tent there was a big pole there big enough for both of us so we ran straight for it. we stopped as I was completely out of breath and my mouth so dry I couldn't talk there was a beverage cart in front of us with a huge water bottle already open [redacted] grabbed it for me and I chugged it, at that moment an older man told us we needed to run and stay down, so I tossed the bottle and hand in hand we stayed crouched down and ran alongside the left side of the vendors stating close enough to where we could hide and take cover if need be we made it close enough to the exit and took our chance and ran for it as we were exiting the concert location there were cops everywhere and swat and ambulances, emt 's and people who were injured everywhere I remember seeing people pushing someone on a beverage cart down the street towards las Vegas Blvd. in front of what looked like a church I told [redacted] we should run to the church but it looked closed and he said no lets run to the closest casino. Throughout this time from the bud wiser tent all the way to the casino I don't recall any other shots being fired. We walked a few feet to Las Vegas Blvd. and crossed the empty street to the Tropicana We had just arrived when panic started there was a bomb people were yelling and running so we ran into the Tropicana I hotel. I don't know entrance we were at or where we were but we ran. we stopped at a bathroom as I had to pee I went in first [redacted] waited and then he went in and I waited for what felt like forever. A man was outside waiting for his girlfriend he saw me in a panic and offered to help he gave me his water and went and grabbed a wet paper towel he said he wasn't trying to be fresh and asked if he could wipe the blood off my legs, I hadn't even noticed it was there, I wasn't injured it was someone else's blood. after he wiped down my legs I asked him to do me a favor to please check on [redacted] in the bathroom he said no problem I could hear him in the bathroom yelling '[redacted] [redacted]e replied "yeah?' he said it again '[redacted]? [redacted] replied yeah? There was silence then he came out and said to me "I don't know why [redacted] decided right now was the best time to take a shit but he is!" without thinking I said well "well yeah it scared the shit out of him! everyone around me laughed and during the horror I did too. [redacted] came out scared something had happened to me and we left we made our way to a lobby it was empty except a couple who was hiding behind a service counter we sat there for a moment my sister in law called at 10:23 I missed the call so I called her back it was 10:25 p.m. I spoke to her for 1 min and 4 sec I let her know we made it out alive and we got disconnected I called her back at 10:30 p.m. and we spoke for approx. 2 min when my mom called at 10:32 p.m. I spoke to her for 2 min and when I hung up it disconnected both my phone calls so I called [redacted] back at 10:34 we spoke for 19 sec. I told her I didn't feel safe where we were and I would call again. A women approached us with her 3-5 yr. old daughter in her arms she asked if we worked there I replied no and I asked her if they were ok she said yes and looked confused as if she didn't know what was happening We got up and started making our way towards the sky bridge to MGM I remember feeling so unsafe out there and rushed to get into the MGM as soon as we reached the MGM there was an escalator full of people and then panic started again people were screaming there was a shooter [redacted] yelled to everyone not to panic and just quickly go straight everyone listened and no one was hurt running off the escalator we ran into the mgm and there were people everywhere gambling not having a clue what was happening but there was still chaos I don't know where we ran to but as soon as things calmed down panic arose again with people screaming there was a shooter in the building again I saw a door leading to an employee hallway so we ran through it and found ourselves at the mgm security's back office . we ran inside and there were already people from the concert in there taking cover as well as a few security guards. [redacted] and I made our way to the furthest back room and held each other tight. We stood there for a while before we sat down and began to calm down [redacted] refused to move from the door way in case something happened he could react and protect me. we both had been receiving phone calls and texts from our friends I spoke to my best friend [redacted] who had been working at the hard rock she informed me she was able to get home and was glad I was alive, I spoke to Michelle fox I know he spoke to my brother [redacted] and his sister [redacted] and friends of our [redacted] and others who had downloaded and listened to the police scanner reporting to us what they had heard of multiple shooters in different hotels , we thought there were shooters everywhere I began looking for things we may need to survive I didn't know what was going to happen or how long we would be there. The left side of my head started hurting I found some Excedrin and a soda I was shaking feeling like my sugar was low so I took the medicine and drank the hot soda and tried to calm my nerves. I found a few medical supplies and bunch of maps of the hotel printed out I grabbed one in case we needed an escape route. I found a bible I opened it and sat on the floor to the first page it said prayers if you are in danger psalm 91 I read it and felt hope that we would make it home to my kids. we sat there for about an hour or so until a man in a suit told us he was moving us all to another location right down the hallway he brought us all to the hallway we felt extremely unsafe but they tried to assure us we were in an employee area there were 3 doors one leading to the ka show one leading to an employee hallway and the third leading outside. we were told we were free to leave at any time but that lvpd wanted us to stay put so we did. no one left. they brought us chairs and water and tee-shirts for us women who were cold we all sat and tried to comfort one another. we planned an escape route if the shooter found us and we just waited. It was around 1:30 a.m. when they told us we needed to start making our way towards the main casino that they had caught the shooter and he was dead, that it was safe to go. Being locals, we asked how we could get home and they only told us at the time we could walk to koval, that was not an option. So we made our way to the lobby and spoke to a young man who claimed he was in charge of all the VIP tents at the concert we exchanged gratitude that each other was safe and he told us there were taxi cabs outside waiting to take people where they needed to be I reluctantly went outside with [redacted] and got into the taxi cab line we were there for about 3 min when a man started making his way through the line asking if anyone had wanted to share a taxi to the hard rock knowing that was probably our best bet at getting home I ran up to him and said we do If we got into the cab with 2 wonderful ladies who's accent led me to believe they were from London we told them our experience and the horror we had just gone through the nice lady took 20.00 out of her purse and gave it to the taxi driver and told him to take us as far and as fast as he could home he agreed and took us home except when we got home he made us pay for the entire trip from the mgm to the hard rock to our home. He pocketed the cash the women gave him and took advantage of us. instead of arguing with the guy which boyfriend had begun to do I said ya know what I don't care I am home and swiped my card and ran inside to my family. My sister in law had the door already open and her arms open wide we cried and hugged each other as tight as we could then my brother then I ran upstairs kissed ad hugged my 9 year old daughter over and over again I tried to wake her but she was talking in her sleep and smiling I had never been so happy to see my little girl then I ran to room thinking my son was there but he wasn't he was fast asleep in his own bed I crawled in next to him and broke down in tears holding him kissing him smelling him my one year old son wouldn't know he almost lost his parents that night. My boyfriend and I cut off our bracelets threw them away and took a shower as we cried and held each other thanking god we were home.

3-4 171017-1769

DETAILS We were in the Skybox #3, first floor. We heard what sounded like firecrackers. We listened. It continued. Then we heard more & more shots. - One after another - Then we saw the crowds running towards the suite. We then realized it wasn't firecrackers & ran. We then hid in a food truck - thinking we could drive out. But we couldn't & shots got louder & closer. We ran - a huge fence was pushed down. We ran over the fence & went towards the airport. We hid behind buildings at multiple points, but figured that wasn't safe. We continued to run & find places to hide, until we made it to a private airplane hanger. We figured upstairs would be most safe & stayed there until police came w/ buses.

The following is the transcription of a tape-recorded interview conducted by DETECTIVE R. RAFFERTY (RR), P# 8919, on 10-03-17 at 1742 hours.

RR: Operator, this is Detective R. Rafferty, that's R-A-F-F-E-R-T-Y, P# 8919, dictating a victim statement, uh, regarding Event# 171001-3519. I'm currently at Sunrise Hospital on the 3rd day of October. The date now -- correction, time is 1742 hours. I'm currently with [redacted]k. Her first name is [redacted], common spelling. Her date of birth i[redacted]. Her phone number is [redacted] hours. All right [redacted], uh, tell me what happened on the 1st.

MC: Um, from start to finish?

RR: Sure. Being at the concert and kind of where you were.

MC: It was right in the middle.

RR: Okay.

MC: Um, where, like, they - I want to say where, like, they shine all the lights on the concert at.

RR: Mm-hm.

MC: Um, and I was just dancing and having a good time, and then I heard a bunch of, like, firecracker sounds, I guess. And I just thought it was part of the concert, and so I kind of just kept doing what I was doing and then once it started again, and I saw people running and I - I don't - I just turned around and started running. And then I ended up tripping over, like a speed bump thing, and I fell, and that's when I got shot when I was already laying down, but I stayed down because I thought people were on the floor, like, shooting people. Thank you. And then some guy came and picked me up out of nowhere and just got me over his shoulder and ran. And then he -- I don't even know where he went but he put me under a car so he could go get help and then to keep me safe because we didn't know where it was coming from. And then I got brought into a - a - an apartment complex from there where people were hiding, they helped me. And then that's when the ambulance came and took me here.

RR: You came here? Didn't go anywhere else?

MC: I don't think -- yeah, I think I came straight here in the, um, from the guy's apartment, there's a -- 200 people in there, like, hiding. There's, like, packed insane. The lights were off and everything, and then I was in the bathtub with, um, like and ex-marine, that's who carried me. So he was like, tying my belt around my waist and stuff and, yeah, and then he brought me, I mean, the paramedic brought me straight here.

RR: When you're hearing the popping, like, the firecracker sound, kind of where is that coming from, do you remember?

MC: I honestly thought it was from the concert.

RR: Yeah.

MC: Like, it's a concert, there's fireworks and then when there wasn't a firework, I don't even think I thought twice...

RR: Yeah.

MC: ...because, I don't know, you're having fun...

RR: Yeah.

MC: ...and doing whatever and that's the last thing you're thinking about, and then he kept singing and, like, people were running from the stage to the back, like, where I was, so I -- that's when I got scared. I thought that, like, people were coming from up there shooting because it sounded like multiple people, like, it was not -- it did not, like, it just kept going and going and going, like, it didn't stop even when I was already at the hotel room, like, we still heard things.

RR: How long do you think that was?

MC: I honestly, like, like, 15 minutes, like, it was going on and then you'd hear things from, um, like, different sides, I guess, like, from different areas to where -- that's why he told me don't get up from underneath this car, like, there's people on the floor for, like, looking for people because they would stop...

RR: Mm-hm.

MC: ...and then we'd go, so it was almost I felt, like, like, they were looking or something and then find a group of people and, I don't know. I didn't know anything and I still have limited, like, what I want to know, so I've kind of, like, not asked questions or looked into it. I mean, I know what I've been told, but I don't really have any desire to know things right now, you know, so.

RR: So just to confirm, um, if the concert is -- let's say the front here and back, right, like, the farthest away from it...

MC: Not even, like, so, like, say this is the stage and there's all these alcohol or, like, bars on this side.

RR: Mm-hm.

MC: Like, right here in the middle is just this stand that we kept meeting at, like, where, like, they -- I want to say they were record the concert from there so it can go on the big screen, oops.

RR: Sorry.

MC: And then you can still go behind that, but it was on AstroTurf.

EVENT#: 171001-3619
STATEMENT OF: [redacted]

RR: Okay.

MC: And then when I fell and got hurt, I was on actual gravel because, like, you could see, like, spark.

RR: Okay.

MC: It almost looked like, like, fireworks next to me.

RR: So when you fell, this is the sparks you see are on the gravel around you?

MC: Mm-hm.

RR: A lot?

MC: Yeah.

RR: More than two?

MC: No, like, consistent but not, like, like, I knew what it was.

RR: Sure.

MC: Like, enough to, like, think that I was gonna get shot again.

RR: Sure.

MC: You know? And then within seconds, like, he, like, picked me up and then I just did whatever I was told to do, like, I just -- I didn't think that there was any other option really.

RR: Right.

MC: So.

EVENT #: [redacted]
STATEMENT OF: [redacted]

RR: When you got shot, did you know right away? Like, you didn't thing you got bumped into or, like, you kind of had that

((Crosstalk))

MC: No, I knew something happened. It didn't, like, it was -- I don't know. I told him that the other day. I was, like, when you think of getting shot you think of going down immediately and, like, just, like, dying.

RR: Mm-hm.

MC: And it was so, like, your body just took control and just, like, I didn't believe it until, like, I went like that and was, like, holy shit, like, I'm bleeding, you know. Um, and then I kind of just followed the crowd, I mean, no, I didn't, like, he was. Everybody was just, kind of, running, so.

RR: Were you bleeding a lot?

MC: Yeah.

RR: Yeah.

MC: Yeah.

RR: Like, uh, was that belt, like, an impromptu tourniquet or a bandage? Is that sort of...

((Crosstalk))

MC: It ended up being that, like, when I got with the guy and he was, like, taking my belt off me and ended up being a tourniquet, but, like, originally it was just my belt for my pants.

RR: Right, right. That's what I mean, but he tried to use...

MC: Yeah.

RR: ...it as such as a bandage...

MC: Uh-huh.

RR: Somehow to put pressure on your...

MC: Yeah.

RR: On your wound?

MC: Yeah.

RR: Um, anything else that you think is important to contribute to that maybe I didn't ask? Anything - any details that stick out in your head?

MC: No. I mean, if you hear somebody tell that story again and you could find him, that would be...

RR: Right.

MC: ...amazing. I would do...

RR: That there was this girl that you picked up.

MC: Yeah, like, I swear his girlfriend's name was [redacted]

RR: Okay.

MC: And these two just, they, like, saved my life. To think, I don't know what would've happened if I didn't get up and move.

RR: Right.

MC: You know?

RR: Right.

MC: Like, it could have even been stompled over, you know.

RR: Sure.

MC: So yeah, if you find him, call me.

RR: I will.

MC: I'd love to say thank you.

RR: Anything else at all?

MC: Nope, I'm good.

RR: Okay. Operator, this is the end of the interview. Same parties are present. Time now is 1750 hours.

DETAILS Attending the Route 91 festival I was watching Jason Aldean perform I was located in front of the stage on the left side below DJ stage set up. I heard fireworks or what to appear to sound like fireworks. Next thing I knew people were screaming & a lady that was a few people behind from me appeared to have suffered a gun shot wound to the upper left chest. People huddled her over the fence Barrier By the stage & I hunkered down on the ground. The gun shot were more rapid & sound close. I grab my wife and ran to the left of the stage and proceed to run toward the Airport where we(were) found a safe place at the Grand Canyon Helicopter Lounge. Police showed up & escorted us to Buses & ended up at UMC.

DETAILS Attending the Regal Harvest Festival. We were watching the final concert on Sun. night Jason Aldean. At about 10pm we heard what we thought were fire works, then we heard it again and knew it wasn't. We ducked down then about a minut later started running out the Venue toward Hooters. While running my daughter and I fell, I felt at that time the shot to my foot. We got up continue to run until we reached Hooters and hid in an unknown person room. Once in the room I then notice I also was shot in the butt. Someone got ahold of medics. They arrived and took my daughter and I to Southern Hills hospital.

DETAILS On October 1, 2017 I was at the Route 91 Harvest Festival at approximately 2200 hrs as I was standing center stage listening to Jason Aldean perform, a few feet to my right side (towards the LV Strip) I heard what appeared to be firecrackers in the audience. A few minutes later, I heard what I assume were gunshots and about that same time I heard unidentified people scream and yell things such as "get down, get down." My daughter, [redacted] was with me and we immediately assumed prone positions on the ground. I placed my body on top of [redacted] to shield her from potentially being shot. We could hear multiple gunshots as well as what I believe were the bullets ricocheting off the surrounding metal gates.

Church. We walked fast along the sidewalk until we saw police vehicles. I then approached the uniformed officer who was directing traffic and told him [redacted] had been shot. He directed us to an area on the curb, next to a patrol car. There were several others who had various wounds and were covered in blood. Unknown civilians assessed [redacted] (R) leg, calf area and we utilized a black Sam Hunt concert t-shirt to tie around his calf area as a tourniquet to apply pressure & stop the bleeding. We then got up and walked towards the Hooters Hotel. Once there we were directed to a triage area and again a civilian checked Mercal and advised us it was not an emergent wound and we should go to our hotel. I contacted a family friend, [redacted] who was in the strip area, and he met us at the Motel 6 on Koval and Tropicana. He drove us to Spring Valley hospital. This concludes my report.

DETAILS My wife and I were standing facing the stage at Route 91 on the left side facing. Please see Diagram for approx location.

We were watching the third or fourth song right after the set started and we heard three pops that sounded like fireworks. We looked at each other & said "what was that" and we turned back thinking it was nothing. then we heard a few more pops 8-10 and then just a ton of gunfire. the sound seemed to come from our 4 o Clock while facing the stage. we didn't know exactly what was happening until it seemed like something exploded which was hot right in our faces. We thought it was something electric that blew up. I thought maybe it was a grenade or something. as soon as that happend, I grabbed my wife and threw her to the ground and kept telling her to keep her head down. We kept hearing gunfire that was about 50-100 shots. It stopped and I looked around and I saw the woman in front of us on the ground with blood pouring from her head. Her guy was over the top of her holding her and trying to wake her up. More gunfire started and another 50-100 shots and I covered my wife and told her to keep her head down. We heard a bunch of people saying if we dont get moving we are going to get trampled and when the gunfire stopped a bunch of people ran away. I picked my wife up and we ran. I remember her saying she needs to grab her shoe. We ran off towards the back of the venue away from the sound of shooting and Las Vegas Blvd. We kept running and kept hearing gunshots. All of them sounded like auto gunfire. they were all in a row and at the same rate. This was when I told my wife I thought I was shot. I had blood on my left shoulder and it kept coming. We kept running and got behind a fence at the venue and found a police vehicle. There were a bunch of people ducked behind the vehicle. My wife told the officer that I was shot but they kept bringing more people over and many others said they were hit too. We kept hearing gunfire. I sounded like the bullets were hitting the stage and the ground as there were these klack klack klack sounds along with the gunfire distinct sound. We stayed behind the vehicle until I realized that we werent going to get any help with so many people around and I didnt want to keep bleeding. We waited until the gunfire stopped and took off down the road towards Tropicana. We kept following the crowd and we went in the back of Tropicana. We didnt even get in the back of tropicana when people started running back out the door screaming. We turned around and headed towards Las Vegas Blvd and towards Luxor. I cant remember anymore, if we heard more guns or not but I remember when I got across the street we said we need to go back to Mandalay to our car. I didnt want to take an ambulance of someone else who Might need it more. I told her (my wife) she needs to take me to the emergency room. We knew a new ER opened on Blue Diamond right by our house and it would not be full. We ran towards Luxor and were stopped by a security guard who told us there was a shooter in Mandalay bay. This was at appox 10:20pm. I called my parents and told them I was shot but that I was going to be okay. We followed the security guard inside and she treated my wounds with saline and gauze. I told her after she treated me that I needed to leave as I didn't want to take an ambulance. She let me go and I headed towards Mandalay bay but were stopped and told we couldn't go that way. They brought us to the Chris Agal theatre and Metro officers escorted us out towards the parking structures at Luxor. We walked through the structure to Frank Sinatra Dr. and made our way to the carpark at Mandalay I told my wife to drive me to the ER by our house while I kept pressure on the wound. We arrived at the ER at approx 11:30pm and was treated right away. We left around 1Am after being released with a diagnosis of Shrapnel in my arm and neck. We got home and arrived around 1:15am.

DETAILS I was at the Route 91 Harvest Festival and Jason Aldean was only about 3 songs into his set. I was up by the front left side of the "cat walk" part of the stage when I heard rapid bangs, which I thought was fire works. We all saw Jason Aldean run off stage, so we all hit the ground and heard more rapid bangs. We noticed it was bad and immediately fled foot on foot out the left part of venue. As we ran, I saw a lady in a wheelchair who was bleeding in multiple parts of her abdomen + body. My group hunkered down in nearby airport ranger + then transported to UMC Thomas + Mack center.

GC: And also, ma'am, you were the incident as well?

ND: Yes, I was.

GC: Um, the interview is being conducted at Spring Valley Hospital. Uh, the date is October 3, 2017. The time is, uh, 1727 hours. Um, the interview is being conducted as part of a continuing investigation involving, uh, the event at the Mandalay Bay Hotel and Resort under Event# 171001-3519. Um...

DW: [redacted], can you just tell us a little bit about where you were, what happened, what occurred, anything that you seen.

AD: My wife and I were standing maybe 30 feet in front of the spotlights that were on the right side of the stage - so closest to the Mandalay Bay. And first we heard what we - sounded like firecrackers - sounded close proximity. Then there was only a few - I couldn't tell ya, maybe four or five. And then there was a pause and the crowd kinda paused too. But then it picked back up and everybody I'm sure was thinking it was just firecrackers. And then there another series of what sounded like a small caliber handgun again. And sounded like small caliber handgun and it was just a few again and - maybe four or five. But this time I felt something hit my back and I thought it was some of the people who were running and, uh, later I found out it was a, uh, what I would call a skip round or a ricochet. 'Cause I have a bruise and it didn't penetrate but it caused, uh, a breaking of my skin. And following that I knew somethin' was up and I'm yelling at everybody to get down, get down. And people started getting down. And that's when you hear the rapid fire, high power - my guess was a .223 type firearm - whether it was an AK or an AR or whatever I don't know. But it was - the sound it made was a pretty good -- (simulating the sound of gunfire) -- and multiple. And then there was a pause, I'm tellin' everybody run, just run. Grabbin' people off the ground, pushin' people, tellin' 'em run, run, run. And we also ran and some people were trippin' and fallin', pick 'em up and help 'em and just run. And we tried to take some cover - it was more concealment because we tried to get behind a, uh, one of the bars and there was a bunch of people hunkered down there, out of sight. And we go down - I pushed her down and got on top of her and right after that you could hear the rounds skippin', whizzin', and then I took one to the shoulder. And, uh, I said, "I'd been hit. I'd been hit." I said, "I've been hit. I've been hit." And some people pulled me up closer to the bar and I asked the gentleman that had pulled me up on top of him - it was a little guy - to put pressure on my shoulder - push as hard as you can - cause I didn't know the extent of the damage and I knew I needed to stop the bleeding. And after that I, uh, somebody comes running up says we gotta go and we all knew that. So we waited for the next volley to stop and we all got up and just ran. My wife and I ran, took cover, out behind - furthest away from -- I don't know the street -- but furthest away from the Mandalay Bay. During the - the shooting you could tell it was coming from the northwest side. You could hear the direction. I couldn't see any flashes. I was looking for muzzle flash and I just didn't - I don't know if it was my timing or if I wasn't lookin' in the right spots. But I could tell it was coming from northwest side. I think that's northwest. Anyway we made it out to a patrol unit and some off-duty paramedic cut my shirt off, grabbed my shirt, my wife's shirt, threw it on, did applied pressure and somebody came by with a - a belt to help cinch it down and keep the pressure on and we got up - we knew we had to get out of there 'cause we're still in the line of fire. I saw cars goin' - just people jumpin' in cars. Cars were bottoming out, wheel wells were getting' scraped by the tires cars were so full. Saw some people that were in dire need of medical attention just being thrown in - they appeared lifeless but man I hope they made it. And they tried to put me in one of them there's not enough room. So we kept pushin' and went to, uh, went around the backside of the Tropicana and their security staff had said the building was locked down and appar- a ambulance came rollin' up and, um, some people flagged it down, got in front of it to get it to stop and said, hey, he's been shot. And the said well they needed to get to the scene where other people had been shot and drove away. So I ended up - my wife and I ended up just bearin' down and puttin' as much pressure as I could and ran over to the MGM. Not one taxi would render any help. And a gentleman decided he wanted to start videotaping me with an iPhone. And we made it into the MGM where their staff had set up a triage with their EMT people. And, uh, they EMT'd us and then at some point people started to panic -- because they think they saw people with blood and injuries been shot -- started yellin' that there's a shooter in the MGM and everybody ran. And, uh, it - it quelled and about an hour and a half I was there I finally got a gurney back to the hospital where they checked me in.

DW: How'd you get to the hospital?

AD: Ah ambulance.

DW: Did they bring you to this hospital or were you transferred?

AD: They did - they transported me here because they determined that my injuries weren't as significant as some of the others that were going to the closer hospitals.

DW: Okay. And you said you - you haven't done surgery but you're possibly gonna do surgery back in California?

AD: Yeah. It's been recommended that I have surgery to remove the shrapnel and clean the wound because the doctor's afraid that -- well he's not afraid -- he said I would have, um, infection and they wanna clean it and they wanna get the shrapnel out. And if at that time they can remove the - the bullet that's lodged between my rib cage and my lung they'll remove it. Otherwise if they can't get to it they're just gonna make sure to clean it thoroughly and leave it there.

DW: And your - you'll be gettin' out - so are you drivin' back tonight or how are you gettin' back?

AD: The Sheriff's Department is arranging air.

DW: Oh very nice. Okay.

AD: I don't know if they're gonna medivac me with our - medi- medivac unit or if I'm gonna take the Sheriff's airplane.

DW: Okay.

AD: But one of those two. I'm headed to Pasadena Huntington Memorial Hospital.

DW: In speaking with your wife over this I - did she see anything different? Did she just stay by your side and...

AD: We got separated a couple times but we were - we were side-by-side. The only reason we got separated was 'cause when we ran I don't know if I passed her or she passed me. She came back to look for me but it was only for a few seconds. She saw and heard the same thing I heard. She's a Lieutenant on the Department as well.

DW: Oh. All right. Well thank you for your time. If, uh, if you have any questions or anything like that we'll leave, uh, our number for ya. Um...

AD: All right.

DW: ...but we appreciate your time and best of luck and good luck.

AD: Thank you guys.

DW: Thank you.

GC: Operator, uh, this is gonna conclude the interview. The, uh, time is 1736 hours.

ND: My name is [redacted] My birthday is [redacted] I was at Route 91 Harvest Festival...

UM: What's your address, dear?

ND: [redacted]

UM: And your phone number?

ND: [redacted]

UM: Okay. You just wanna go into detail. Tell me where you were standing at the concert, when the first time you thought you heard something, if you looked around, if you saw anything...

ND: I was...

UM: ...and I need you to go into detail on how you - you escaped.

ND: I was standing on the - if you're looking at the stage, the right part closest to Mandalay Bay...

UM: Okay.

ND: ...uh, not next to the bar but pretty close up like maybe four or five standing people - rows and then, uh, Jason was playing and four or five rounds rang out and everybody said it was firecrackers so nobody ducked. And then there was like 20 or 30 more happened maybe 10 seconds later and everybody just said, hit the ground. So I hit the ground and I p- I was with my best friend...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...and I held her hand and we were holding hands with other people that we don't even know. And I told her, "Call your mom, call your dad." "This might be the last time we do this." So then everybody started pushing each other, trying to get towards the other street, not like opposite of Mandalay Bay. I don't know what that's called.

UM: All right.

ND: Because there is no indication of exits. Nobody...

UM: All right.

ND: ...ever told us any exits.

UM: All right.

ND: Nobody knew where any breaks in the fence were. There was so many barricades in the middle that you have people - someone threw me over the barricade of the middle where the sound people were...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...'cause that was the only way. And then I hid under the sound stage and then people said, "He's coming towards us, he's coming towards us." And then I - I got up from the sound stage. My best friend and I got separated. And I saw a bunch of bodies just laying there. Guys on top of the girls protecting them. And I don't know if you know the bar where the House of Blues, you know that space?

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: It's an open concrete. I don't know how many yards that is, but there was a brief moment of silence and I thought, I'm just gonna run. I'm not gonna lay here and just get shot. So I stood up to run, there was maybe 10 feet from the entrance of the House of Blues, and he shot my arm and it turned into a zombie arm. It just - it just failed.

UM: So when you - did you feel the - the shot or did you just feel your arm go numb?

ND: Well, I heard one shot and it hit the girl in front of me...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...and she fell down. And then I started - I realized I was running in a straight line so then I started going side to side. And then all of a sudden one of them grazed my leg and then - I mean, it felt like two hit my arm. And then I - I fell into the House of Blues because there was some guy waiting there. And I said, "I just got shot, I just got shot. Please help me, please help me." There's nobody there.

UM: Mmm.

ND: So then I got into the House of Blues and there's a bartender there and he said that we're still in the line of fire and you need to come inside. And so he pulled - he pulled us inside and I was able to walk. Then people had knocked down the chain linked fence, like off on to where the parking lot was...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...and I saw a police car and this man named Dave from LA Fire Department, picked me up, and was laying on the ground, and he took his shirt off and people took their belts off to stop the bleeding. And then they were - they just kept saying, "She has to go first, she has to go first." So then they put me in the bl- in the back of an Uber car and they put - they just put me in the back of the car and my dress was really bloody and then they - she was trying to call 9-1-1 but 9-1-1 was completely blocked with all the calls so they just told her to drive with her flashers on. So she drove all the way here and when I got out of the car and then I got really dizzy and then I just fell down here. But can I say something that...

UM: Sure.

ND: ...happened right before?

UM: Sure.

ND: We were standing next to this tall guy and this woman and they were acting really, really weird and they- there's and also - ever since the first day of the festival, there was a blinking light in one of the Mandalay Bay rooms.

UM: Okay.

ND: I don't know if you've heard that before...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...but it was blinking the whole time. It was so annoying. I don't know all the details.

UM: But...

((Crosstalk))

ND: It was so annoying. It was weird and nobody knew what the deal was. It looked like cameras blink, blink, blink, blink...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...blink, blink, blink.

UM: All right.

ND: And then I - I looked up at the buildings once we got into the car because I could still see from that street, the buildings, what it looked like on the - you know, where it's like the L. Where - where it says Mandalay Bay on the long part.

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: There's like in the middle of the building it's like there was two openings, you know, in the building.

UM: Okay. You say people were standing in front of you. There - there was something about them that drew your attention?

ND: It was - it was so weird.

UM: They didn't say anything to you or they didn't make any moments or they just...

ND: No, but they left like 10 minutes before it happened...

UM: Okay.

ND: ...which was really weird because everybody was there for Jason.

UM: All right.

ND: And then the girl said something, they were whispering a lot, and then they - he's tall and he looked like he was in the military and they left.

UM: Okay.

ND: Not even 10 minutes before the whole thing started.

UM: Okay. Now did - at any point, did you - you said you heard two volleys of shots?

ND: Mm-hm.

UM: And did you hear anything after that?

?: When did you call me?

EVENT#: 171004-[redacted]
STATEMENT OF: [redacted]

ND: I called you when the second where - after the first round went off and everybody was like, "It's firecrackers...

UM: All right.

ND: ...don't worry." And after it was not firecrackers.

UM: And you heard another round?

ND: I heard fire...

((Crosstalk))

UM: And - and you hit the ground?

ND: Yeah, it was a long round though.

UM: And so you're down there a few seconds, you get up and you start running over...

ND: No, it - it w- it was the second round so (Simulating the sound of gunfire). And I called my dad, my dad was on the phone, and he said, "Those aren't firecrackers."

UM: You could hear them over the phone, dad?

?: Yeah.

UM: Okay.

ND: And then, um, I tried to stand up but these girls just pushed me down and said, "It's better to lay down, like don't run, don't run."

UM: As you're down there, are s- shots still going off?

ND: Yeah, shots were going like 50 rounds. It was a lot.

((Crosstalk))

UM: They were - and they were just continuous, continuous, continuous?

ND: It was just continuous like so many I can't - you can't even count them.

UM: All right.

ND: So then we started going towards the blockade but I didn't realize we had to go over that barrier...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...which was really tall and there's nothing you could grab onto and these guys just pulled us over and just stood me on the ground.

((Crosstalk))

UM: A- and again, as you're doing all this...

ND: There's so many...

UM: ...there's still shots going on?

ND: It's maybe like 5- probably like 15 seconds of shots...

UM: Okay.

ND: ...between seconds of silence, 20 or 30 s- rounds of shots, a few seconds of silence...

UM: Okay.

ND: ...and then when I got over the barrier, there was another set of like a really long set of shots that were fired and I put myself in a sound box. You know...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...where you put the sound equipment in

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: And then I saw them - I saw bullets just flying off of the stage, though. I'm not doing this, no, all right.

UM: Okay.

ND: I couldn't see anything at that point and then they said, "They're coming towards us, they're coming towards us." 'Cause everybody said they're at the VIP bathrooms. That's where everybody said the shots were coming from.

UM: Right.

ND: It sounded like that but the echo on the - in the strip was so - you know what I mean? The echo is really confusing.

UM: Yeah, it is...

ND: But I - I don't know, I was the only - me and the man were the only two running.

UM: All right. So when you got to the Uber car, was there still shots going?

ND: Yeah.

UM: Okay. And then that's when you left and you got to the hospital.

ND: Well, I laid down on the - on the ground for probably like five minutes...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...and then they didn't know what to do 'cause there wasn't any EMS there, you know, so they weren't there yet. So we were just - people were just coming over and they were shot and people were just sort of tie stuff on and nurses were there, like people who were there in the crowd. And the officers were - had their guns toward Mandalay Bay...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...when I was underneath, I was right next to a cop car and people who weren't shot just made a human barrier around me and then the – like I said Dave from LA Fire, he just put me in the car and told me, "You're not gonna die." And then I just got here and - I got here and then that's all I know, really.

UM: Okay. Thank you.

DETAILS I was standing facing the right hand side of the stage about 15ft back from the stage. I heard a series of pops to my right, towards the Mandalay Bay but ignored it as people remarked it was fireworks. I then heard more and more pops and people began collapsing for cover. In between pops I saw a woman bleeding. After about 5 min total from the initial pop, I got my wife over a barricade but hit the ground myself when the pops continued. I got up and not seeing my wife I began running towards the airport. My wife made it safely to our hotel the Monte Carlo, and I took shelter in an airport hangar with 40 or so people. I stayed until police arrived and bused us to UNLV.

LVMPD 85 (Rev. 8/11) WORD 2010

Me and my boyfriend sat on other side of hay bales watching the tear down of the stage when that conversation took place. We were actually ignoring events around us. We were tired after 3 days of concerts and just wanted to see Jason Aldean perform. A white young couple arguing at Entrance 3, yellow shirt security responded.

At that time, I had no recollection of the conversation.

Approx 2130

We used the porta pods at north end. 4 people on the hay bales were gone as well as the workers.

We walked down the concession, the lights were on but nobody was home. All vacant. White smoke plumed over the grill. Eerie feeling.

Approx 2135

East opening located between porta pods & House of Blues. Completely open. 4 drop fences gone, metro gone, puppy gone. Single metro vehicle with lights on on the other side of the fence.

Boyfriend spoke to couple in front of House of Blues.

We took a few steps west when the show began. As we think I wanted to stay in the back.

2140hr Boyfriend asked if I wanted to move up. I told him no, I'm good here.

3rd song ended approx 2153hr

Approx 2155hr Jason Aldean talked for a few minutes. Take cover & fire church leading for the stage.

2206hr. Aldean walked up the stage towards the audience. poppers (fireworks) went off by the long bar east side. poppers (fireworks) east side of stage. Lights on ground, smoke rose. Aldean stopped.

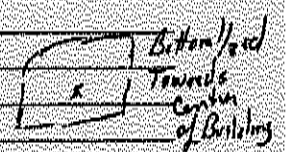

Larger than life on the screen.

Camera didn't change view or zoom.
